

February 2010

Dear Parent:

The MDNA Austin D. Lucas Scholarship Fund was founded to assist children of MDNA member firm employees with their higher education goals. Since its inception in 1982, tuition grants totaling $1,092,300 have been awarded to over 823 students.

Applications are now being accepted for scholarships for tuition assistance to college, vocational, technical or graduate school study for the 2010-2011 academic year. Deadline for completed applications is May 15, 2010.

Please read the MDNA Austin D. Lucas Scholarship Fund Criteria and Restriction Sheet to see if your child is eligible to apply for a scholarship. If you have children who are eligible to receive tuition grants please encourage them to apply.

Included are:

1. Instruction letter for prospective college, technical, vocational or graduate school students
2. Application Form and Profile Sheet
3. MDNA Austin D. Lucas Scholarship Fund Criteria and Restrictions
4. Parent's Employment Verification Form
5. Parent/Child Release Form

Forms and instruction letters may be reproduced on your office copy machine or you may request additional copies from your employer or MDNA headquarters. Forms are also available on the MDNA website: www.mdna.org.

Applications must be received by May 15, 2010 for consideration for the following academic year.

Sincerely,
